About Brainwaves Improvisational Comedy

Brainwaves is a unique comedy ensemble that can make your next event a hilarious success! Made up entirely of professional comedic actors, Brainwaves plays corporate functions, colleges and special events all over the United States. Formed in 1986, they are pioneers of the West Coast improv scene. The cast has years of experience working together, which gives them, what The Oregonian called, "An almost psychic connection on stage." The cast is adept at incorporating anything about life about your company or event into their show.

Additional Information

A Brainwaves show consists of fast paced scenes based entirely on suggestions from the audience. These may include a live-action soap opera based on the life of a favorite employee, the wit, wisdom and humor of a two-headed psychic and a plethora of scenes that involve the 'Wavers quick wits and zany characters. The Oregonian calls a Brainwaves show "Smart Fun!"

Brainwaves has headlined at numerous National Improv Festivals including Chicago, Ill. and Austin, TX. The group has performed for hundreds of corporate and college clients, including Nike, Intel, Columbia Sportswear, Creighton University, University of Oregon, METRO, St. Mary's Academy, and many more.
