About Elephants Delicatessen

Since 1979, Elephants Delicatessen has proudly served our community as Portland's premier catering company and specialty foods retailer. We make all of our great local foods from scratch every day for your eating enjoyment. We offer drop off catering, full service events and the option of holding your event in our lovely Private Garden Room.

Elephants Catering is committed to providing each of our clients with delicious foods, and friendly, knowledgeable service. We're working each day to exceed your expectations, and to engage and delight your senses.

Serving the Catering Needs of the Portland Metro area for 30 years!

We have the resources and expertise to manage any event, from small daily corporate meetings to large-scale extravaganzas. Elephants Catering is built upon the foundation of providing our clients with exceptional quality and service. As a corporate catering and event planning services company, we partner with clients and individuals to make their jobs easier, help them achieve their goals – and stay on budget!

Supporting our Community Responsibly

We are committed to sustainable business practices that improve our products, processes and facilities while reducing our environmental impact. Ask your sales associate how you can help by choosing our eco-friendly corporate products.
